

InnoVal Exercise - Module II

- 1 VNFIL stands for Validation of Non-Formal and Informal Learning.
 - A. True
 - B. False

- 2 The VNFIL process has four necessary sequential phases
 - A. Identification – Documentation – Assessment – Certification
 - B. Documentation – Identification – Assessment– Certification
 - C. None of the previous options

- 3 What kind of instruments can we use to diagnose and identify?
 - A. Interviews
 - B. Europass
 - C. Portfolio
 - D. Essays

- 4 In assessment, it is important:
 - A. To suit the students' individual characteristics and needs
 - B. To set a work schedule
 - C. To verify if every work element has been concluded

- 5 In which phase of the VNFIL process does the use of the Europass instrument occur?
Chose the correct option.
 - A. Identification
 - B. Documentation
 - C. Assessment
 - D. Certification

- 6 In which phase of the VNFIL process does the use of checklists (list of skills) occur?
Choose the correct option.
 - A. Identification
 - B. Documentation
 - C. Assessment
 - D. Certification

- 7 The pressure from the tutors is:
- A. An intrinsic motivation
 - B. An extrinsic motivation
 - C. An intrinsic and extrinsic motivation
 - D. None of the previous options
- 8 To give oneself a reward at the end of a task can make the school involvement easier.
- A. True
 - B. False
- 9 The multiple-choice question format is an example of a type of assessment. Choose the correct option.
- A. Standard
 - B. Alternative
 - C. Neutral
- 10 The standard assessment can be defined as a process that measures ability and complex skills
- A. True
 - B. False
- 