

InnoVal Exercise - Module IV

- ① At an initial stage for the use of VNFIL innovative methods it is necessary to diagnose the social barriers and techniques of the assessment methods.
 - A. True
 - B. False

- ② Choose the corresponding option to the VNFIL sequential educational goals.
 - A. Facilitation – Identification – Overcoming – Application
 - B. Identification – Facilitation – Overcoming – Application
 - C. Facilitation – Identification – Application – Overcoming

- ③ The programmes should target the acquisition of validation recognised by the companies.
 - A. True
 - B. False

- ④ Consider the following aspects according to the CEDEFOP. In terms of sustainability, it is necessary to take different validation elements into account:
 - I. Who the beneficiaries of the process are
 - II. The expected amount of candidates
 - III. Infrastructure, human resources and processes
 - IV. Assembly and maintenance costs
 - V. Partners in the operational processes
 - VI. Long-term projections to validation, amount of candidates and costs

Choose the correct option.

 - A. I and II are true
 - B. III and IV are true
 - C. V and VI are true
 - D. All the options are true

- ⑤ To ask for a fee paid by the beneficiaries from the validation processes may facilitate the engagement within the task.
 - A. True
 - B. False

6 Some of the challenges found in traditional education may be applied to the implementation of methods to VNFIL.

- I. Insufficient infrastructures
- II. Limited access
- III. Differentiated learning styles

Choose the correct option.

- A. I and II are false
- B. II and III are true
- C. I and III are false
- D. All the options are true

